INTRODUCTION

Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences (FASS), established in 2009, encompasses diverse academic and professional disciplines with a highly qualified faculty, including 16 PhD faculty members. The FASS curriculum is structured to be contemporary and challenging, fostering a spirit of critical inquiry, an urge to discover, learn, and reflect on humanity's issues. FASS provides a learning environment that is interactive and robust, ensuring that students acquire well-developed communication and analytical skills – a habit for independent thinking and a sense of personal and professional responsibility which employers seek in candidates in today's job market. Our mission is to provide students with an exceptional environment to pursue their studies in a wide variety of programmes. FASS graduates can pursue a wide variety of careers with a degree in Humanities or Arts & Social Sciences education, including business, media, education, government, public policy, library science and non-profit work.
